

CANEY CREEK

The Legend of Alice Lloyd

CaneyCreekMovie.com

Caney Creek: The Legend of Alice Lloyd

Motion Picture, TRT: approx 2 hours

The Story, 1916 to 1955:

The amazing, true story of Alice Lloyd is a dramatic story of a woman's courage and a wonderful, positive national presentation of Appalachia.

Music/Sound track:

The motion picture will harvest the huge bank of Appalachian traditional music for the sound track ... old-time and symphonic. Appalachian-folk-classical.

Alice Lloyd and June Buchanan

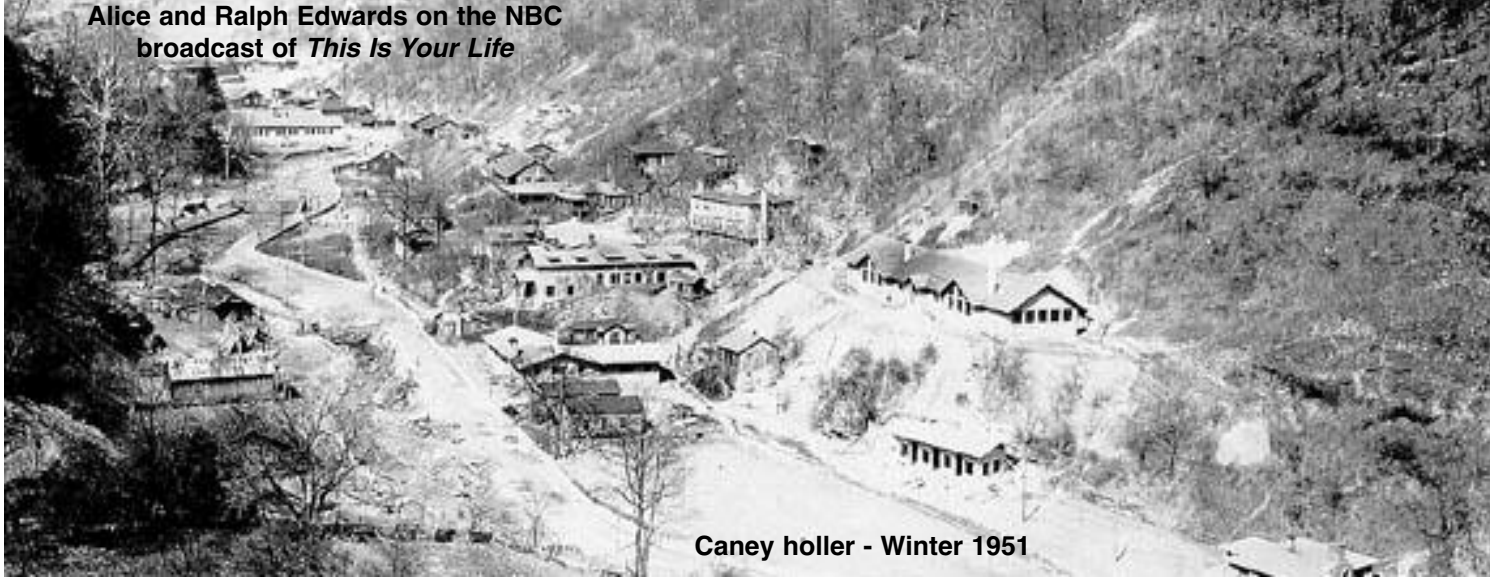

BEFORE YOU BEGIN READING

NOTES ABOUT THIS SCRIPT

- A) The historic story is told in BLACK AND WHITE
- B) the CURRENT story is told in color
- C) BOTH stories are told side-by-side until they merge in time at the end of the script
- D: The DIRECTOR'S NOTES remain in place until a Director is signed to the project

Alice and Ralph Edwards on the NBC broadcast of This Is Your Life

Caney holler - Winter 1951

The only known photo of Alice Lloyd and Abisha Johnson, taken about 1925 after she settled onto Abisha's land on Caney Creek.

The students of Alice Lloyd College responding to the thousands of letters received after her appearance on NBC's This Is Your Life

Alice Lloyd at her typewriter about 1937